Found Hanging to a Tree.

Yesterday afternoon word was received through the Mutual telephone office, that a man had been found hanging to a tree near the Ahimau ranch. The police were notified and went to the spot. The body was found to be that of a Chinaman, and decomposed beyond recognition. It had evidently hung there four or five days. On the ground near by, was the man's clothes with the exception of the shirt, which was on the body. There was also two rice bags sewn together, and containing a package of crackers and another of sugar. In the pants' pocket was a dollar and thirty-five cents. It is supposed to be a case of suicide. The affair will be investigated.

The Revival Meetings.

Mr. S. M. Seyford, the Boston evangelist, continued his services with unabated interest in the Church last evening, and notwithstanding the intense heat, the church was well filled. The evangelist took for his subject the opening of the eyes of blind Bartimeus, from which he drew many practical and suggestive lessons. At the close of the address, several young people requested prayers. At the earnest request of the Committee the services will continue every night except Saturday in the church at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

A Snake Story.

A few weeks ago a large rattlesnake was killed on a gentleman's plantation in the neighborhood of Balihua, in the belly of which was found three middle sized rabbits. The snake had ten rattles, and was supposed to be about thirteen years old.—New York Commercial Advertiser.
